THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS AT PINE BLUFF
POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

PROJECT/PROGRAM ACADEMIC LEARNING SPECIALIST

The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, an NCAA Division I member of the Southwestern Athletic Conference and one of the leading institutions of higher education in the region, is accepting applications for the position of Project/Program Academic Learning Specialist for At-Risk Teams. The incumbent will be charged with specifically working with teams which have received, or are on the borderline of receiving, penalties for not meeting academic benchmarks as established by the NCAA, the SWAC or the University. Specific duties associated with this position shall include, but not be limited to, monitoring of classroom attendance and performance, counseling, advising, degree planning and progress towards degree monitoring. The Project/Program Academic Learning Specialist for At-Risk Teams will report to the Project/Program Director of Student-Athlete Academic Services and will assist that individual in educating the specified head coaches on matters relating to the NCAA's Academic Performance Program and APR (Academic Progress Rate) in addition to coordinating educational activities for student-athletes of the at-risk teams, including tutorial services, on-campus study halls and study halls while traveling. Additional duties may include filing, typing and copying of documents. MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor's degree and at least three years of experience either as an administrator, coach or student-athlete on the NCAA Division I level or as an academic counselor or similar specialist in higher education.

Review of applications will commence immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume' and contact information on a minimum of three professional references to:
