

Nondiscrimination Statement: Discrimination is Against the Law

The University of Arkansas Medical Benefit Plan (The Plan) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Plan does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

The Plan:

Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as: Qualified sign language interpreters.

Written information in other formats such as: Large print.

Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as: Qualified interpreters and Information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact The Plan 1557 Nondiscrimination Officer. If you believe that The Plan has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with The Plan 1557 Nondiscrimination Officer. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, The Plan 1557 Nondiscrimination Officer is available to help you.
