Faculty/Staff Handbook

Policy: STANDING COMMITTEES

Policy #: 1.3

General

Much of the study and work accomplished in the name of the Faculty Senate will be done by standing committees which represent the broad involvement of University personnel. Except as otherwise specified, no committee action is to be final until acted upon by the Senate and Chancellor as specified in the Committees section.

Membership

- g. Committee membership may include any employee of the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff who may have the responsibility or expertise within the functional committee areas described herein. Provision is also made for students to serve on selected committees.
- h. Except for specified positions named, all committee members will be nominated by the Committee on Committees and appointed by the Chancellor for one-year terms.

Committees

Committee-on-Committees. The Committee on Committees will be composed of the Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs, who will chair the committee; the head of each Academic Division; and the President of the Student Government Association.

- a. Those members of Standing Committees who are not designated by position will be nominated by the Committee on Committees for submission to the Chancellor for approval.
- b. Student nominations should be coordinated with the Student Government Association. To the extent that continuity is not jeopardized, committee members will not be nominated for consecutive terms.
- c. The Committee-on-Committees may recommend the establishment, disestablishment, or modification of standing committee structures in accordance with amendment procedures prescribed in the Amendments section.
