Conditional Admission

Entering freshmen not meeting the above criteria may be admitted to the University conditionally. This includes students receiving a GED or graduating from a home schooling program after May 1, 1997.

Transfer Students

A transfer student with more than 30 semester hours and with a "C" average or better must submit an application for admission and an official transcript from all institutions previously attended.

Transfer students with fewer than 30 semester hours of credit must submit an application for admission, high school transcript, ACT or SAT scores and all college/university transcripts, and immunization records.

Transfer students with less than a "C" average from colleges or universities may be admitted to the University on academic probation with the approval of the Admissions Appeals Committee. Transfer students asked to withdraw from other institutions for academic reasons will not be allowed to enroll at the University until they are eligible for re-enrollment at the institution previously attended.

Students from other colleges and universities who desire to attend the University during the summer only, may be admitted by submitting an application and a statement of good standing from the institution where they are regularly enrolled. If the student becomes a degree candidate, all admissions requirements must be met.

Immunization

Arkansas Law requires proof of immunity against rubella and measles for students born prior to 1957 before being allowed to register for classes at Arkansas colleges and universities.

International Student Admission Requirements

A complete application for admission along with the following credentials must be submitted:

1. Official TOEFL scores of at least 525 as evidence of proficiency in the English language.
2. Official copies of all prior academic work: English translation is required.
3. Verification of adequate financial resources to finance the proposed course of study.

[The University conforms to ACT 351 for the State of Arkansas (1991), which "prohibits the making, forging or counterfeiting of a transcript, diploma, or grade report." A person who violates any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisonment not to exceed six (6) months, or both.]

Housing

Students are eligible to receive housing applications once they have been admitted to the University. Applications may be requested by contacting: Residential Services 870-575-8079
