

University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Seventeenth Annual Conference on Educational Access

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Theme: "Educational Access: Meeting the Exceptional Needs of Diverse Students"

The 2010 Conference theme is "Educational Access: Meeting the Exceptional Needs of Diverse Students." Through plenary addresses, workshops, and panel discussions, this conference will examine strategies for success in meeting the diverse needs of contemporary students. The conference is guided by one goal and four objectives.

Conference Goals:

To help improve scholarship and leadership among Arkansas youth in academia and in the workplace.

Conference Objectives:

1. To create increased awareness of the diversity within the student population and of strategies to address these exceptionalities in instructional design/delivery.
2. To increase knowledge of approaches to address specific student cohorts, (i.e. conduct disorder, honors, black male, and low performing students).
3. To present successful models of instruction in mathematics, reading and writing.
4. To provide a platform to examine the use of Benchmark Examination and End of Course Examination performance as the indicator of student academic mastery.
