

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences seeks candidates to fill the position of Assistant Professor of Political Science. This is a full-time tenure track, nine-month teaching position with the opportunity to teach during the summer.

Minimum Qualifications: Preference will be given to candidates who have demonstrated experience of effective teaching and research in Political Theory and can advise a growing number of Political Science majors interested in attending Law School. The Ph. D. is required by the time of appointment. Commitment to the mission of an 1890 land-grant HBCU and evidence of promise in research and publication is highly desirable.

Must have strong motivation toward creative research in Political Science and have a commitment to teaching and advising at the undergraduate level. Proficiency in teaching in the following areas is expected: Normative Political Theory, Global Issues, *International Relations, Comparative Government (Western Europe and Developing Nations, especially Africa), and Introductory American Government.

Application Procedures: Send a letter of application, statement of educational philosophy, curriculum vitae, copies of official graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation to:

Dr. Ebo Tei, Chairperson
Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences
University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff
1200 North University Drive
Mail Slot 4988
Pine Bluff, AR 71601

Position expected to be filled by Fall 2010 Semester.

“The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff is an equal opportunity, affirmative action, equal access institution; and full participation by Women and Minority Groups is encouraged.”