SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

Policy Statement
It is the policy of the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff to prohibit sexual assault and to prevent sex offenses committed against students, employees, visitors to the campus, and other persons who use University facilities.

Sexual assault is an extreme form of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment and Unlawful discrimination is prohibited by University policy and is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Sexual assault is also a crime, defined by the Arkansas criminal code.

Definitions

Sexual assault may include any involuntary sexual act with which a person is threatened, coerced, or forced to engage in against her or his will or while temporarily or permanently incapacitated. Sexual assault may be committed by a stranger or by a person known by the victim.

Acts defined as sexual assault include rape, date rape, acquaintance rape, and gang rape, but may also include sexual touching of another person against his or her will, and forcing an unwilling person to touch another person sexually.

Sexual assault occurs when such acts are committed either by force, threat, or intimidation, or through the use of the victim's mental or physical helplessness, of which the assailant was aware or should have been aware.

Consent is defined as clear, knowing and voluntary. Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity. Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity. Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.

Responsibility to Report

Any student, faculty member, staff member, administrator, or visitor to the campus who has experienced or witnessed sexual assault should report the assault immediately to UAPB Campus Police Department at 870.575.8102. If the assault occurred outside the jurisdiction of the University Police, they will assist in reporting it to the proper authorities.

Sexual assault may also be reported to the city of Pine Bluff Police Department, if it occurred within the city limits, or to the police of another municipality if the assault occurred within another township or city that has a police force. Sexual assault may be reported to the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department if it occurred outside city limits but within the county. Sexual assault may also be reported to Committee Against Spouse Abuse (CASA) Women’s Shelter or Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Program.

Preserving Evidence

It is important that evidence of sexual assault be preserved, because it may be needed for prosecuting the criminal case. Victims and others should not alter the scene of the attack. The victim should not change clothes, bathe or shower, douche, drink or eat anything, or brush her/his teeth before reporting the assault. Any items worn by the victim during the assault, but are not currently being worn, and any materials encountered during the assault (i.e., bed sheets, blankets, etc.) should be placed in a brown paper bag and brought along with the victim to a local hospital emergency department that has kits to collect and preserve evidence of rape and sexual assault.

Availability of Counseling and Advocacy

Counseling and other mental health services for victims of sexual assault are available on campus and in the community. Students and employees may use the Student Counseling, Assessment and Development Center. Employees of the University may be able to seek help through the Employee Assistance Program. Community mental health agencies, such as the Southeast Arkansas Behavioral Healthcare Mental Health Facility, counselors and psychotherapists in private practice in the area can provide individual and group therapy. Committee Against Spouse Abuse (CASA) Women’s Shelter or Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Program, may assist with making referrals for individual counseling and support groups. Committee Against Spouse Abuse (CASA) Women’s Shelter or Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Program will assist victims with identifying non-counseling campus and community resources that may be of additional help and serve as a victim advocate upon request.

Education and Awareness Programs

Student Counseling, Assessment and Development Center and UAPB Campus Police are responsible for planning and coordinating campus education and awareness programs about all forms of sexual assault, including rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, dating violence, and other sex offenses. Programs are presented regularly throughout the academic year in residence halls, fraternities, sororities, and for other student organizations, academic classes, and in other settings that are likely to reach people throughout the campus community. Campus-wide education and awareness activities are on-going.

University Student Conduct System

When appropriate, the UAPB Campus Police Department or any member of the University community may refer allegations of sexual misconduct by students to the Title IX Deputy Coordinator. The student conduct system, which is described in the Student Handbook, provides a just and equitable process for addressing alleged infractions in the Student Handbook and/or other regulations or laws. The system is intended to educate students, to help them make responsible decisions, and to be accountable for their actions.
All cases involving Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Harassment are resolved consistent with the provisions of Section 4.30.15 or 4.30.16 of the Code of Student Life ("Special Procedures for Cases Involving Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Stalking, Domestic Violence, and/or Dating Violence"). Complaints concerning allegations of sexual assault regarding faculty and staff members may be referred to the Affirmative Action Officer.

Disciplinary Action

Students and employees who are found responsible for sexual assault may be subject to University disciplinary action. According to the circumstances of the case, possible sanctions for students may range from University Censure to Expulsion from the University and, for employees, from formal reprimand to dismissal.

Victims of sexual assault may receive assistance in making reasonable changes in their work, academic, or living situations. Students may request assistance in changing their living situations from University Housing. Requests for academic changes should be directed to the dean of the appropriate college. Employees may request assistance in changing their work situations from their supervisors or from the Department of Human Resources. Requests for such changes will be considered on the basis of their appropriateness and whether the requested change is reasonably available.

Coordination of Responses to Alleged Sexual Assault

The University has designated the Affirmative Action Officer as its Title IX Coordinator with overall responsibility for oversight of the University's compliance with its obligations under Title IX, including, but not limited to, its obligations to investigate and respond to allegations of sexual assault.

Contact information is as follows:
Karen Baker, Affirmative Action Officer/Title IX Coordinator
Administration Building Room 102, Pine Bluff, AR 71601
