Celebrating our 45th Class Reunion

Our alma mater was founded in 1873, the 2nd oldest institution in the state of Arkansas. We are grateful for its founding. We are even more grateful for the 100 years that followed that set into motion our coming together to form the Class of 1973, also referred to as the "Transition Class", or "the Inaugural Class" of the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, previously known as AM&N College—a distinction that makes our class unique.

Our Class of 1973 carries with it a legacy within a legacy that is resilient, proud and committed. It all began 100 years before us, but it continues with us today. We look forward to "Being Back in Stride Again" at our 45th Reunion, celebrated at the 2018 UAPB Homecoming. Stay tuned for details.

Message from Class '73 Committee

We are nearing our 45th Graduation Anniversary. At our 40th we established the Class '73 Endowment Scholarship Fund. I believe that our class challenge and desire to do something of lasting significance in the name of our class and for UAPB students yet unborn is still a viable and worthy endeavor.

If you have never given, consider starting now; if you gave in the past, give again and perhaps give more this time and challenge another to match your gift.

So as we consider our celebration plans, we want to hear from you and we ask from your enthusiastic support of our endowment.

Sincerely,
Clinton, Evelyn, Gladys, Linda, Ron & Vernon

Foundation Update

Thank you so much for your continued support of our Class '73 Endowment Scholarship Fund. This fund will perpetually assist UAPB students in meeting the increasingly high cost of attending college. As of 2016 we have contributed $64k towards our $100k goal by 2018.

We're trying to get 100% participation from classmates in some "amount" of support.
