

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF GERONTOLOGY

The Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences seeks candidates to fill the position of Assistant Professor of Gerontology. This is a full-time tenure track, nine-month teaching position with the opportunity to teach during the summer.

Minimum Qualifications: Ph.D. in Gerontology or related area. Preference will be given to candidates who have demonstrated experience of effective teaching and research in the field of aging and can advise a growing number of Gerontology majors. Candidate must have completed Ph.D. by appointment date.

Major responsibilities include, but are not limited to the following: teaching and curriculum development with a background in liberal arts and a core of general and specialized courses in the field of aging. Provide specialized pre-service training in geriatric casework and counseling; community health services; and program administration and management. Candidate must have a strong commitment to the mission of an 1890 land-grant HBCU and evidence of promise in research and publication highly desirable.

Qualified applicants should send a letter of application, statement of educational philosophy, curriculum vitae, copies of official graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation to:

Human Resources Department
University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff
1200 North University Drive
Mail Slot 4942
Pine Bluff, AR 71601

Information Contact:

Dr. Jerry Ingram, Interim Department Chair: ingramj@uapb.edu

Deadline: Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

“The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and Participates in E-Verify”