Visiting Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice
Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences

This is a full-time, nine-month teaching position.

Minimum Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or closely related field is required prior to August 15, 2015. Applicants with only a J.D. will not be considered. Teaching experience is strongly preferred and candidates should be firmly committed to high quality undergraduate teaching. Some teaching of evening classes is required. Commitment to the mission of an 1890 land-grant HBCU, research, and publication is highly desirable.

Major Responsibilities: Include, but are not limited to, teaching and advising majors interested in attending graduate and professional schools. Candidate must be able to direct senior undergraduate research projects. Proficiency in teaching in the following areas is expected: introductory courses; corrections; law enforcement; juvenile justice; and law.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

Qualified applicants should send a letter of application, statement of educational philosophy, curriculum vita, copies of official college transcripts and three letters of recommendation to:
