  - Make sure you and your chosen roommate have selected the same building and room preferences in your housing application or you will not be placed together.
    - You can contact the Office of Residence Life to assist you with changes to a housing application at any time.

Selecting and Creating Roommate Groups (3 of 3)

Step 3 - Search by profiles for roommates or find someone you know using their roommate code.

Step 4 - Whomever sends the first invitation is considered the Group Leader and will be responsible for all aspects of building the group. Group Leaders will be identified by a Star.

Group members will receive an invitation from the Group Leader. You can accept or reject this invitation. If you accept the invitation, you will then be added to the “group.” Only Group Leaders can invite or release group members from a group.

The Group Leader
- Is the first person to send an invitation
- Will be the person who invites any/all other group members
- Can select another group member to be the group leader
- Has the ability to release other members from the group

You can search and invite specific people by using their roommate code.
