

Betty Hayes-Anthony

Mrs. Betty Hayes-Anthony is an instructor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department here at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. She received her Bachelor of Science in Secondary Coaching and Physical Education in 1981 and a Masters of Education in 1995 in Physical Education from UAPB.

Mrs. Anthony has 28 years of teaching experience, sixteen in public school teaching and coaching, she has taught in the West Memphis School District, Dollarway School District and Pine Bluff School District and twelve years here at UAPB as an athletic administrator, coach and instructor. Mrs. Anthony was in the NCAA inaugural class of Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Females where she received her Leadership Training certificate in Athletic Administration in 2006. She is married to Willie Anthony and she has three children Anthony, Andre and Medic.