

LaTraia L. Jones

LaTraia Jones is an instructor at UAPB in the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and serves as advisor to students of current licensure requirements since 2008. His Fall Teaching load includes: Primary/Lead-Up Games, Personal Health and Safety, Coaching Theory and Intro/History/Principles/Physical Education. Spring classes are Sport officiating, Primary/Lead-Up Games, Personal Health and Safety .

Prior to returning to UAPB, Mr. Jones worked as Defensive/Recruiting Coordinator/HPER Instructor, Alcorn State University; Head Football Coach, Mississippi Valley State University; Assistant Head/Defensive Coordinator/HPER Instructor, UAPB; Head Football Coach/Athletic Director/Biology teacher, Springfield High School, LA; Assistant Football/Recruiting Coordinator, New Mexico State University; Assistant Football, Head Tract Coach/HPER Instructor, Western New Mexico University; Assistant Football Coach/Biology Teach, Santa Fe High School, New Mexico and Assistant Football Coach/Special Education Teacher, Mayfield High School, New Mexico. Mr. Jones also received a Bill Walsh Fellowship with the Dallas Cowboys in 1995 and the San Francisco 49ers in 1998.

Mr. Jones' community service include the P-12 School/Partnership with Pine Bluff High School, Dollarway High School and Watson Chapel High School Football Teams, where he taught skills & strategies to the Jr. and Sr. High Coaching staff.

Mr. Jones is a member of the National Association for Sports and Physical Education, and Arkansas Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, Black Coaches Association and American College Coaches Association.

Mr. Jones has received numerous awards and recognitions, to highlight a few, he was a participant in the Fiesta Bowl; Lettered and started in football for four seasons at University of Wyoming; High School All-American in Football, Hobbs, NM; Southwest Athlete of the Year; First Team All-Great SW Team Football and High School All-American in Track, Hobbs, NM.

Mr. Jones holds a Master's in Educational Administration and Bachelor of Science in Physical Education/Biology from New Mexico State University.