Social Work Comprehensive Exam (Spring 2014)

Social Work Comprehensive Exam was administered to a total of 11 students (See Social Work Comprehensive Chart for linkages of competencies and practice behaviors (Volume III of the Social Work Self-Study document). The benchmark was 75% of students achieve an overall pass score of 70% and score 70% or higher on each competency. One hundred percent (100%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 1; Eighty-two percent (82%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 2; One hundred percent (100%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 3; Ninety-one percent (91%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 4; Eighty-two percent (82%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 5; Seventy-three percent (73%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 6; Forty-five percent (45%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 7; Eighty-two percent (82%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 8; Eighty-two percent (82%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 9 and, Seventy-three percent (73%) of students scored 70% or higher on competency 10. Students exceeded the benchmark of 70% on all competencies, except competency 7 (45%). The competencies mean score was 81% and the overall group mean for all competencies were 82%. 