Where do I register for my classes? All freshmen will report to Corbin Hall Room 146 to meet with an advisor. Upper division students are also able to register for classes online. Students can log in to the "my uapb" account which provides access to student email, Web Advisor, and Blackboard accounts, through which students are able to access the course schedule and register for classes.

How do I register for my classes? All freshman students will report to Corbin Hall Room 146 to meet with an advisor. Students are also able register for classes online. Students can log in to the "my uapb" account which provides access to student email, Web Advisor, and Blackboard accounts, through which students are able to access the course schedule and register for classes.

When do I register for my classes for next semester? A Pre-registration/Financial & Academic Advisement week is scheduled during the fall and spring semesters for students to meet with their advisor and register for classes. Registering early is important because it allows you to get the classes you want at the times you desire.

How do I know which courses will be offered each semester? The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff publishes a schedule of classes, and can be also viewed online at www.uapb.edu/academics/course_schedules.aspx

Where do I go if I don’t know what I want to major in? Career services in Caldwell Hall Room 202 and Basic Academic Services in Corbin Hall Room 146 assist students with major and career exploration. Each degree program with the list of required courses for that major is also outlined in our Undergraduate Catalog.

Where do I declare a major? Freshmen should see an academic advisor in Basic Academic Services, Corbin Hall Room 146. Upper division students should see the Department Chair for that major. A list of majors is available on the UAPB website.

How do I change my major? Students go see an academic advisor in Basic Academic Services, Corbin Hall Room 146 or students should go to the Department where the major is located, complete a Change of Major form, and return the form to the Registrar’s Office located in the Administration Building Room 220.
Where do I go to inquire about work-study? Students should go to the Office of Student Financial Services at the beginning of fall and spring semesters. Students qualify for work-study based on their financial aid award.

Where do I get my student ID and parking permit? New students go to the Office of Campus Security located on Reeker Street to obtain a student ID card and parking permit.

When do I get my student ID and parking permit? Students obtain their student ID and parking permit within the first week of each semester. Students go to the Office of Campus Security located on Reeker Street to get student ID cards made and parking permits.

How do I drop/add a course? Students should go to Basic Academic Services in Corbin Hall Room 146 to meet with an academic advisor. Students also have the option of dropping/adding a course online. Students can log in to the “my uapb” account which provides access to student email, Web Advisor, and Blackboard accounts, through which students are able to access the course schedule and drop/add classes.

How do I know what my grades are in a class? Grades are posted at the end of each semester within the Web Advisor, which can be accessed via “my uapb” account. It is your responsibility to check them.

When do I get my refund check? It varies. It depends on how long it takes for a student’s financial aid to process. Students should go to the Office of Student Financial Services and check the status of their accounts. Students receive first disbursement one month after school starts. Then the second disbursement is a few weeks later. Refunds will be placed on student ID cards or students can elect to have their refunds direct deposited into their bank accounts.