1890 Scholarships Program offers scholarships to U.S. citizens who are seeking a bachelor’s degree at UAPB in one of the degree areas in the School of Agriculture, Fisheries and Human Sciences (SAFHS). Application deadline is March 31, 2021, 5 p.m. CST.

In order to qualify for the UAPB 1890 Scholarships Program, applicants must meet the following selection criteria:

- Be a citizen or national of the United States;
- Have been accepted for admission to UAPB;
- Matriculate at UAPB no later than the first fall semester following their high school graduation;
- Agree to pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in an accepted major within SAFHS;
- Intend to pursue a career in the food and agricultural sciences or other related disciplines (i.e. Agricultural Sciences, Aquaculture and Fisheries Sciences or Human Sciences);
- Have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.2 or higher on a 4.0 scale at the time of application (either from high school if entering as a first-time, full-time freshman);
- Have a minimum 19 ACT score or equivalent 1020 SAT score or above at the time of application.
- Enroll in a minimum of 15 credit hours of core courses in a SAFHS degree program each semester that he/she receives 1890 Scholarship support.

If selected, 1890 Scholarships Program recipients must maintain the required GPA on a semester and cumulative basis to continue receiving the approved scholarship award. This scholarship is only open to students pursuing a degree in the School of Agriculture, Fisheries and Human Sciences at UAPB.
